CH said copies of the minutes had been circulated to the members attending. There were no matters arising from the minutes. Minutes were approved.
3. Committee Items: CH introduced Paul Keating who highlighted what the Committee had been doing recently.
  - Hanging baskets – to brighten up the parade of shops it was agreed KENDRA would fund the hanging baskets. PK asked members for their opinion and the majority agreed they looked good and agreed we should do them again next year. It was noted and accepted by the membership that the original cost of £1,800 had exceeded the committee's allowed spend limit of £1,500 but the transaction had included both the needed basket wall fixings and £300 VAT..
  - Wattenden Pond – On Sunday scouts will form a working party at the party. Next planting session later this month.
  - Membership – PK said he had received several queries regarding Member Mojo and whether we still took cash, we do still take cash if you do not pay online. There is no ongoing security on the set up.
  - KRAS – (Kenley Residents Against Speeding) A KENDRA sponsored campaign. We are gathering evidence of speeding in the area and engaging with the Police. If members would like to help gather evidence/data which we can pass on we would be most grateful. A full description of KRAS is on Page 14 of the Autumn magazine. A member mentioned about trying to smarten up the parade of shops and spoke about one shop when she asked if they could clean sign or sweep front. The reply was not very polite. She asked if there is any way they could have some form of ID to say doing it on behalf of RA.
4. Chairman introduced Metropolitan Police Officers - Joe Hewitt and Karolina Aamir. Officer Joe said they are trying very hard to sort issues of shoplifting and speeding as they are short staffed and keep being called away to help with marches that have recently been held in London. Carolina said they are no longer on social media so there is a new way to contact them called Met Engage. They had bought a sign-up sheet with them which also had a QR Code which could be scanned. They can send alerts on Met Engage, they are based in Addington. Joe explained that if you call 999 or 101 if they are in the office they can deal with a call, if not it goes to a response team in the locality. A member asked if a Police presence outside schools. Joe said they can drive past schools but do not have resources to be outside a number of schools. Chairman thanked the Police for attending as they had to go on duty.
5. Chairman introduced Linda Duffield – RAF Kenley to speak on Challenges, Triumphs and Tragedies with slides. Linda said she was a volunteer with Kenley Revival and researches mainly WWII and the Battle of Britain in 1940. The airfield was constructed in 1917 because Britain needed more aircraft to fight in Europe during WW1. It was built on farmland and Kenley Common, which was owned by the City of London. It was a former station of Royal Flying Corps, Seven blast pens were built and airfield became known as No 7 Aircraft Acceptance Park where manufacturers sent their planes. After 1918 Kenley was used as permanent RAF station and used by Training & Fighter Squadrons as well as leisure and cargo flights. Evidence has been found that the Officer's Mess was built in 1925/26. In August 1939 Kenley Airfield underwent major work and 1940 built new runway in time for Battle of Britain. In May 1940 Royal Engineers worked to finish 12 blast pens some of which still exist and are still dry. Kenley thought to be best preserved of all WW11 RAF Fighter Stations. Linda went through some names of people who had served at Kenley during WW1 and WW11 and those who had received the Victoria Cross. Cecil Griffin, Douglas Bader (who had his first posting in 1930 in Kenley), Paddy Finucane who had 28 victory's to his name. Unfortunately time was limited or we could have listened to Linda all evening.

Chairman thanked Linda for a most informative talk.
